AS the Reputation of the Harleian Library must, doubtless, have raised in the Learned a Desire of viewing it before its Dispersion, the present Proprietor hopes, it will be considered as an Instance of Willingness, to gratify the Public, that the Books, enumerated in the Catalogue, will be exhibited to View at the Library in St. Mary Le Bon, from the Tenth to the Twenty-eighth of March, from Nine in the Morning to Six in the Afternoon; and intreats those Gentlemen and Ladies, who shall think this great Collection worthy of their Curiosity, not to delay the Visit beyond the Time appointed, some Interval being necessary to regulate the Books which the Spectators may displace, and to make other Preparations for the Sale, which will begin on Thursday the Seventh of April, the lowest Price marked in each Book, and continue till public Notice is given, in the News-Papers, of its Conclusion.

THOUGH these Volumes have been drawn up with all the Care that could be allowed by the Necessity of so speedy Publication, it is intended that those, which are to succeed, shall be more methodically digested, more accurately printed, and interspersed with more frequent Observations; and at the End will be added, an exact Index of all the Authors, with References to the Numbers in which they occur, after the Manner of Bullialdus's Index to the Bibliotheca Thuaniana.

THE HISTORY OF THE EAST INDIES.
FOLIO.

11519 KNox's Historical Relation of the Island Ceylon in the East Indies, with Cuts —— —— 1681

The Author of this History, who understood the Language of Ceylon as well as his own, and was a Prisoner in that that Island near twenty Years, wanted neither Opportunity, nor Capacity, to attain a thorough Knowledge of the Place he describes; and the learned Dr. Hook, in his Preface to this Relation, wherein he highly extols its Excellency and Usefulness, assures us, that Mr. Knox has inserted nothing in it, but what he was either an Eye-witness of himself, or received from the best Authority. The Map the Author has given of Ceylon is new and exact, designed from his own Observations made on the Spot.

11536 The Antiquities of Palmyra, containing the History of the City, and its Emperors, from its Foundation to the present Time, with Cuts — — 1696

Palmyra, now called Faid Sansoni, situated in Syria, on the Borders of Arabia Deserta, was formerly a famous and flourishing Metropolis; which the learned Gerard John Vossius, in his Treatise on Idolatry, takes to be the same with Tadmor in the Wilderness, spoken of in 2 Kings ix. 18, and to have been built by Solomon. The Author of the above-mentioned Antiquities of Palmyra, Abraham Seller, agrees with Vossius, as to Palmyra's being the same with Tadmor; but he is of Opinion, that Solomon was rather the Restorer than the first Founder of this ancient City. In his curious and elaborate Work, tho' Hallifax and Halley, celebrated Writers, had treated on this Argument before him, he has made several new and impor-

ent Discoveries; to which he has added critical Observations, on the Religion and Form of Government of Palmyra, with an Explanation of Inscriptions lately found in that Part of the World.

These Works, very highly esteemed, are written by a most learned, curious, and accurate Author, who visited very remote Parts of the World, in the Pursuit of Knowledge: His Description of the Pyramids of Egypt was made from his own exact Observations on the Spot, which the famous M. Thevenot translated into French, and inserted in the First Volume of his Voyages; and his other Writings are so many Monuments of his Accuracy and Diligence.
